About Busy Bees

Busy Bees is the nation's leading nursery group, with 379 brilliant nurseries in the UK, Ireland, and right across the world. Ever since they were founded in 1983, have believed in giving children the best start in life.

Busy Bees has become synonymous with quality care, and adopts a practical child-centred approach, where children are respected as individuals and encouraged to learn and develop at their own pace within a home from home environment.

The needs of the individual child are paramount in all our childcare facilities, and Busy Bees work together to create initiatives, supply resources and provide outstanding care to ensure every child's interests, safety and happiness is central to everything we do.

About Witherslack

Witherslack are the leading provider of specialist education and care for children and young people with social, emotional and mental health needs, communication difficulties (autistic spectrum disorder; Asperger's Syndrome; speech, language and communication needs), ADHD and complex learning needs.

Their track record of success and sector-leading Ofsted judgements has been achieved through an ethos of high aspiration, placement stability through the 'team around the child' approach, unique in-school therapy solutions and our inspiring environments. These all combine to optimise life opportunities for children and young people, give confidence to parents and carers, and deliver unmatched value for local authorities.

Witherslack's focus on support, care and acceptance allow each young person to develop as an independent individual, equipped with the knowledge, experience and life skills to look to the future with increased confidence and aspiration. They are truly proud of the role they play in changing the lives of young people and helping them to realise their full potential.

About McCarthy Stone

As the UK's leading developer and manager of retirement communities, McCarthy Stone have more than 40 years' experience of providing high quality homes to exacting specifications. They have created over 58,000 age-exclusive retirement properties – apartments, bungalows, coach houses and cottages – in more than 1,300 developments across the UK.

At the heart of McCarthy Stone's 40+ years of success in retirement house-building is their people's desire to enrich the lives of customers. Retirement living has the power to transform older people's lives, which is exactly what they do.

McCarthy Stone's award-winning products can beat loneliness, promote independence and encourage vibrant communities to grow.

Their mission is simple: to help our customers achieve retirement living to the full. Achieving it by employing talented and ambitious people who genuinely care about the difference they make, while understanding that every staff member plays a part in the company's success. With a philosophy that attracts the very best applicants and a working culture that is challenging and stimulating, excellence is recognised, nurtured and rewarded.

It's no wonder a recent employee survey found that 91% of staff said they love their job.
