Chief Executive Officer

Introduction

Busy Bees Education and Training's work involve the taking and use of photographic, video, and audio recordings to assess learners' progress, demonstrate competency and showcase achievements for Partners (Awarding Organisations, EPAO's, Funding Organisations etc)

Where photography, videos or audio recording are used for publicity and marketing, including on its website, on social media, and in publications, we will gain additional consent (appendix 1)

Busy Bees Education and Training recognises that the act of photographing, video, and audio recording images of young people and adults is associated with potential risk as it is possible to identify individuals once made publicly available

Policy Statement

Busy Bees Education and Training is committed to safeguarding the welfare of the young people and adults it supports. Any photograph, video, or audio recording of young people or adults must be used for legitimate reasons in accordance with Busy Bees Education and Training objectives.

This Policy applies to the taking of:

- Photographs
- Video
- Audio recordings

For use by:

- Busy Bees Education and Training
- Partners (Awarding Organisations, EPAO's, Funding Organisations etc)
- Marketing (Media, social media, Campaigns)

Consent

Busy Bees Education and Training will gain the consent of young people/adults for the use of any photographs, videos and audio recordings to be used in conjunction with learning journeys, and marketing, including on its website, on social media, and in publications.

Consent can be withdrawn at any time, however, if consent is withdrawn in relation to the gathering and demonstration of evidence within the learning journey it is likely to impact the continuation of learning due to the requirements of Awarding Organisations and EPAOs. If consent is withdrawn in relation to marketing and social media, we will delete social media posts, however even with the best endeavors, it may not be possible to entirely remove all images from the public domain.

Consent will be gathered via:

- Electronic devices (DVR, E-Portfolio, Teams)
- Written (email, forms)

And include:

- The individual's name, setting/ location, time, and date
 - Who carried out the interview/session/assessment
 - What the recording is being used for.

Security of Images and Recordings

Busy Bees Education and Training ensure any images, videos, and audio recordings in relation to award and assessment are stored securely on the company Shared Drive and or Eportfolio. These files are only accessible by authorized personnel who require this access. Images and recordings are stored in relation to the 'retention policy' issued by Awarding Organisations, EPAO's and other partners.

Partners (Awarding Organisations, EPAO's, Funding Organisations etc) will retain images and recording in line with their own retention period.

Busy Bees Education and Training recordings for marketing purposes will be retained and used for no longer than 3 years.

Use of Images and Recordings

Busy Bees Education and Training uses images and recordings for:

- Purposes of assessment (internally and externally*)
- Sharing of evidence (internally and externally*)
- Marketing
- Promotion (including events)
- Website
- Social Media

We seek consent for each purpose and take steps to ensure these images and recordings are used solely for the purpose intended.

Eportfolio

Employers can request access to learner portfolios during their learning journey. This will be granted unless otherwise specified within your training plan or a written request to traningfeedback@busybees.com
